Jackson Place is a 50-unit apartment community located in northeast suburban Atlanta, Jackson County, Georgia. Strategically located across from Northridge Medical Center and near numerous employment drivers, this boutique asset is less than 2 miles from I-85 and U.S.-Hwy. 441, and Tanger Outlet Commerce is 2.4 miles north. Built in 1997, Jackson Place offers an outstanding value-add opportunity in Atlanta’s Northeast Corridor, which is projected to outpace the rest of Atlanta Metro in population growth through 2030. With a low cost of living, low unemployment rate, good schools, and strong industrial employment drivers, Jackson County is benefitting from exurban growth moving northeast from Atlanta.
